

It's the day

Sometimes it's good to be by myself and that was today. One day my mom asked me if I wanted to go to sleep away camp...I said yes I was so excited. I hope it's going to be awesome.

Finally it is the day...

To get to camp we first had to meet at H.E.A. where the bus was. I hugged my mom, kissed my dad, then left. As I was leaving I felt like I was a tooth with a cavity (I felt like I was missing something) I can't wait ...I can't wait to ...I thought this is my new home for 30 days. The cafeteria had great food. I loved the horseback riding. At night I hear the lovely crickets. I could smell and hear the amazing forest . I remember being at the basketball court as Isaac and I were shooting baskets. It was so fun to meet more kids and I can't wait to go next year. I learned always try your best!!
