

OUR MISSION

TO NURTURE THE CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT OF JEWISH YOUTH BY PROVIDING THEM THE OPPORTUNITY TO CHALLENGE THEMSELVES PHYSICALLY, INTELLECTUALLY, AND SPIRITUALLY.

"I KNOW THAT EVERY YEAR I RETURN TO MY HOME-AWAY-FROM-HOME WHERE I CAN MEET OLD FRIENDS AND NEWCOMERS, I GREET THE FOREST, AND SEE THE WORLD IN ITS BEST LIGHT."

"WE ALL CAME TOGETHER ON SHABBAT AND SANG AS A COMMUNITY. I AM SO SO SO SO SO EXCITED TO GO BACK!"

360-ACRE RANCH

Fresh mountain air 90 minutes from Denver, CO

LOCATION & FACILITIES

Nestled in the heart of Pike National Forest, Ramah is located 90 minutes from Denver on 360 remote acres.

While at Ramah, campers live in raised platform canvas tents with lots of ventilation and fresh air. Each of our tent areas has a bathroom and shower facility with hot, running water.

Our 360 acres allow us the ability to spread out and explore. Our programming embraces the outdoors, with most activities outside or under covered pavilion tents.

MASA'OT (EXCURSIONS)

Every camper spends time camping out under the Colorado stars. From overnights for our youngest children to five-day treks for our oldest, spending time in the backcountry is an integral part of the Ramah in the Rockies experience.

PLANNING FOR SAFETY

None of us know what our world will look like in 2021. We have convened a planning group to examine data and to advise us on the safest way to reopen camp with in-person activities in light of the latest science.

Our outdoor focus and remote location uniquely position us not only to offer the same special blend of environmental living and joyful Jewish expression, but also to implement best practices and safety measures for COVID-19.

"RAMAH ALLOWED BOTH MY CHILDREN TO DISCOVER AT THEIR OWN PACE, FIND THEIR CHALLENGES AND OVERCOME THEIR FEARS."
